The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 18, to Saturday November 22, 1800.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

Containing His Majesty's Declaration, That it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Part of Great Britain; and commanding the said Lords and Commons to give their Attendance accordingly.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by the Fourth Article of the Articles of the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, as the same are ratified and confirmed by Two Acts of Parliament, the one passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled An Act for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the other passed in the Parliament of Ireland, also intituled An Act for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, to have Force and Effect from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and one, it is provided, that if We, on or before the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and one, on which Day the Union is to take place as aforesaid, should declare, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Part of Great Britain; then the said Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should accordingly be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the said United Kingdom, on the Part of Great Britain: And whereas it is Our Intention to appoint Thursday the Twenty-second Day of January next ensuing for the assembling of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom; We do judge it to be expedient, that the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom, on the Part of Great Britain: And We do, pursuant to the said Articles of Union, and to the Acts of Parliament ratifying and confirming the same, hereby declare, under Our Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Part of Great Britain; and the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain are accordingly to be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Part of Great Britain: And the said Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, are hereby required and commanded to take Notice thereof, and to give their Attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Twenty-second Day of January next ensuing.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the Fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred, in the Forty-first Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th of November 1800,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been received that an Epidemic Fever is now raging in the Town of Norfolk, in Virginia, and at Baltimore, in Maryland, within the United States of America; His Majesty deeming the said Fever to be probably infectious, doth, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, deem it expedient to declare, and by this His Order doth declare, that the said Fever is probably infectious within the Meaning of the Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to "amend Two Acts made in the Twenty-sixth "Year of King George the Second, and the "Twenty-eighth Year of His present Majesty, "respecting the Performance of Quarantine, &c." And doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, which, since the first Day of this instant November have arrived, or which shall hereaft

A REWARD OF FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS.

Whitehall, November 10, 1800.

A Printed Hand Bill of the moſt ſeditious and inflammatory Tendency, and highly dangerous to the publick Peace and Tranquillity, having been ſecretly diſtri-bated, inviting a tumultuous and unlawful Assembly to meet on Kennington Common on Sunday the 9th Instant; and it being important to the publick Welfare, that the Author, Printer, and Publisher of the said Hand Bill should be discovered and made amenable to public Justice, as a Warning and Example to others in like Case offending, a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, (to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury,) will be given to any Person who shall discover the Author, Printer, or Publisher of the said Hand Bill, so that he or they may be convicted of writing, printing, or publishing the same.

PORTLAND.

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that some evil-minded Person or Persons did, on the 23d or 24th Ultimo, place a Piece of burning Wood wrapt up in some old Thatch under a Barn filled with Stubble, the Property of Joseph Goodale Baker, of Withersfield, in the County of Suffolk;

And whereas it has also been humbly represented to the King, that some Person or Persons on the Morning of the 24th Ultimo, did feloniously and maliciously set fire to a Hay Stack, the Property of Thomas Flack, of the Parish of Haverhill, in the said County;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the abovementioned Felonies, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Persons who actually placed the said burning Wood under the Barn, or set fire to the said Hay Stack,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TEN GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the Parish of Withersfield, in Addition to a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS also offered by the Norwich Insurance Office to any Person making Discovery of the Persons concerned in attempting to set fire to the said Barn, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

As also a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the Parish of Haverhill, to any Person making Discovery of the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Hay Stack (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Monday the 20th October last, about Nine o'Clock in the Evening, a Barley Rick, of about 160 l. Value, the Property of Mr. Daniel Parker, of the Parish of Dunstable, in the County of Bedford, was discovered to be on Fire, and that there is every Reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil minded Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Barley Rick, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the same) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Daniel Parker.

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been picked up in the Town of Clare, in the County of Suffolk, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the said Town, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been sent to Lady Glyn, of Claverley, near Bridgenorth, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

We the poor distress'd and half starv'd Tradesmen of W. Hampton Bilston lye Waste and other places do on our knees beg your Ladyship to compel your Tenants to sell Wheat at 10s and Barley at 5 to mix for Bread, We have heard of the humanity your Ladyship is possess'd of, and several other Noblemen, which wee have Petiond to do the same, at the meeting of 20 distress'd Tradesmen—We are 126 Thousand Men ready to take the Corn and what we can find if provisions are not lower'd and if you do not compell your Tenants to sell as above, expect to see your Buildings at all your Farms, in Flames, and the Tenant hung at his Door. We will wait but a short Time longer and if the same, down with old England, your neighbour Perry brings Corn and asks 26s a strike and declares he will not sell under, you will see his Building in Flames and him hanging againſt his Door in a ſhort time We have ſixed upon him, and Bennet of Clarley, Smith of D° Lea of Ludſton as the firſt but Perry firſt. We hope your Ladyſhip will hear the cries of the poor who are glad to eat that which your Ladyſhips dogs will not. come to Hampton and ſee our Children picking Potato pearings of the Dunghill to boil for Food. We are ſtarving in the midſt of plenty—O hear our cries, and we will ever pray for you—let them fell out at ſmall meaſure at their own Houſes.

SOUTHWARK STREET TOLLS.

NOtice is hereby given, that the Commiſſioners for putting in Execution an Act of Parliament paſſed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty King George the Third, for paving the Streets and Lanes within the Town and Borough of Southwark, and certain Parts adjacent, in the County of Surrey, and for cleanſing, lighting, and watching the ſame; and alſo the Courts, Yards, Alleys, and Paſſages adjoining thereto, and for preventing Annoyance therein, will meet at Union-Hall, in Union-Street, Southwark, on Thurſday the 11th Day of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to let by Auction, to the beſt Bidder, upon a Leaſe for Three Years, from the 3d Day of January next, the Sunday Tolls of the Southwark Pavements, ariſing from and payable at the Toll-Gates at the Alms-Houſes, in Saint George's-Fields, near Stones'-End, at Newington Cauſeway, at the End of Kent-Street, at Star Corner, the End of Long-Lane, and at the New Road between Dockhead and the Folly-Bridge, in the Manner directed by the Act of Parliament paſſed in the Thirteenth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, to explain, amend, and reduce into One Act of Parliament the general Laws now in being for regulating the Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain, called England, and for other Purpoſes; which Tolls produced the laſt Year Four Hundred and Sixty Pounds over and above the collecting, and will again be put up at that Sum: And whoever happens to be the beſt Bidder muſt, at the Time of letting, make a Depoſit of Ten per Cent. of the Annual Sum agreed upon, and at the Time of executing the Leaſe to make up that Depoſit One Quarter's Rent, which is always to be paid in Advance, and give Security, to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners, for the Performance of his Part of the Leaſe.

By Order of the Commiſſioners,

Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich, Auguſt 11, 1800.

THE Commiſſioners and Governors of the ſaid Hoſpital hereby give Notice, that at Salters'-Hall in London, on Wedneſday the 17th Day of December next, or as ſoon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned Eſtates will be let on Leaſes to commence upon the Days, and for the Term of Years hereinafter-mentioned, that is to ſay; Eaſt Deanraw Farm, in the Chatelry of Haydon, and County of Northumberland; and Tynehead Farm in the Pariſh of Alſton, and Keſwick Mill and Ground, and Wanthwaite Mill and Ground, in the Pariſh of Croſthwaite and County of Cumberland.

Eaſt Deanraw Farm will be lett on Leaſe for Five Years, and Tynehead Farm for Twenty Years, to commence upon the 12th Day of May 1801; and Keſwick Mill and Ground, and Wanthwaite Mill and Ground, for Fourteen Years, to commence upon the 5th Day of April 1801.

Such Perſons as may be deſirous of taking any of the above-mentioned Eſtates are requeſted to ſend their Propoſals, in Writing, to John Ibbetſon, Eſq; at Greenwich Hoſpital, at any Time before the 17th Day of December next, or deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, the ſame on that Day, before the Hour of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Salters'-Hall in London, after which Hour no Propoſals will be received.

For Particulars concerning Eaſt Denraw Farm, apply to Mr. William Coats of Haydon-Bridge; Tynehead Farm, to Mr. John Dickinſon at Lowbyer near Alſton; and Keſwick and Wanthwaite Mills and Ground, to Mr. John Scott at Keſwick.

Eaſt-India Houſe, November 19, 1800.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies do hereby give Notice, that they will grant Licences for any Ships to be ſent to the Eaſt Indies for the Purpoſe of bringing Home Rice from thence upon the following Conditions, viz.

That any Goods, which, by virtue of the Act of the 33d Geo. III. Cap. 52, Individuals (in the manner in the ſaid Act mentioned) are allowed to export to India may be exported on Account of the Owners on board the Ships ſo to be licenſed, ſo as ſuch Goods ſhall be ſhipped by the 29th Day of November inſtant, and that the Ships ſhall be cleared out at the Cuſtom-Houſe on or before the 1ſt December next.

That the Ships ſhall be in the Downs on their outward-bound Voyage, on or before the 1ſt Day of January next.

All Ships, as well thoſe loaded as going out in Ballaſt, are to perform their Voyages direct to the Eaſt Indies, and from thence Home with Rice, without touching at any Place outward or homeward-bound for water, or on any other Pretence whatſoever, except where ſo authorized by the Court of Directors or their Repreſentatives Abroad, or occaſioned by inevitable Accident.

The Owners to engage that as ſoon as poſſible after the Ships Arrival in the Eaſt Indies they ſhall load Home to the Extent of Three-Fourth Parts at leaſt of their regiſtered Tonnage with Rice, unleſs the Government or the Company's proper Officers, where the Ships ſhall load Home ſhall conſent to that Quantity of Rice on board any Ship being reduced, and alſo unleſs Rice cannot be procured, the ſame to be aſcertained by the Certificate of Government or the Company's Officers at the loading Port, and the Ships ſo loading Rice, if it can be procured, are to be at Liberty to fill up their Loading on Account of the Owners with any Goods which Individuals have uſually been permitted to import from the Eaſt Indies.

That foreign Ships may be engaged in India for the expreſs Purpoſe of bringing Home Rice only, ſubject to the Regulations hereinafter mentioned.

The Rice is to be purchaſed and brought Home wholly on Account and at the Riſk of the Individuals who ſhall load the ſame.

The Rice to be at leaſt equal in Quality to the beſt Cargo Rice, and previous to its being loaded to be approved by ſuch Perſon as ſhall be appointed by Government.

If the Owners ſhall deſire it the Company will advance the Money in India neceſſary for the Purchaſe of the Rice for Bills of Exchange on London, at the Rate of 2s. 6d. per Sicca Rupee payable at Three Months Sight.

The Company will be willing to receive the Produce of any Goods to be exported as above-mentioned into their Treaſuries in India, and grant Bills of Exchange upon the Court of Directors for the Amount at the Exchange, and upon the Terms before-mentioned.

All the Goods exported are to paſs through the Hands of the Company as uſual, and all the Rice and other Goods to be imported to be delivered into the Company's Warehouſes, and to be ſold at their Sales.

The Owners performing the Engagements to be entered into on their Parts the Company will give up the 3 per Cent. Duty payable to them for Warehouſe Rent and Charges upon all Rice imported.

That the Owners of all Rice to be imported in any Ship, whether Engliſh or foreign, which ſhall clear out from any Port in the Eaſt Indies before the 1ſt Day of September 1801, and which ſhall make the Voyage directly Home without ſtopping at any Port or Place whatſoever, (inevitable Accidents only excepted,) and except at Places they may touch at with the previous Conſent of the Governments or the Company's Repreſentatives in India, ſhall be entitled to the Whole of the Bounty payable to the Company by virtue of any Act of Parliament in reſpect of ſuch Rice, the Owners bearing all Charges of Inſurance, and taking all Riſks whatever upon themſelves.

If ſufficient Loadings of Rice cannot be procured, (the ſame to be aſcertained as before-mentioned,) ſo as for the Ships to clear out homewards on or before the 1ſt September 1801, then they ſhall immediately return; but with Leave to take in the ſame Quantity of Goods, provided they can obtain them, which they would otherwiſe have been permitted to fill up with if Rice had been procurable; and they ſhall be further indulged with Leave to take in ſuch gruff Articles as may be attainable, and which the Governments in India ſhall ſee it proper to allow; and though the Company have no Expectation of having other Cargoes for them, yet ſhould they have Opportunity of employing them, they ſhall be eligible to be taken up by Advertiſement, according to the Act of the Thirty-ninth of George III. Cap. 89.

The Owners of the Ships to be licenſed are to enter into Covenants to the Company purſuant to the Terms above-mentioned.

Should any Foreign Ships or others import Rice from Foreign Settlements, where the Quality cannot have the Approval of the Repreſentatives of the Company, ſuch

Rice will ſtill be entitled to the Guarantee, provided it proves equal in Quality to the Average of the Rice imported under the Licences granted by the Company.
